BREAK FREE CHARITABLE TRUST & INTERNATIONAL SERVICE TRIPS

The Break Free Charitable Trust

Established in 2017, the Trust is a NZ registered charity reliant on donations. It aims to alleviate poverty, hunger, and sickness by providing food, clothing, and shelter to the poor, as well as providing education and training on global poverty issues and steps to alleviate them.

The Trust helps New Zealanders in need, by supplying food, clothing, and disaster relief, such as after Tropical Cyclone Gabrielle in 2023. It also offers education and leadership training, including hands-on experiences through Volunteer Build where those learnings are put into action.

Art Green Reality TV Star
2018 House Building Mexico Trip

I wanted to have an adventure and to make a meaningful change to the lives of some people less fortunate than myself. Over the course of three days we built a house for a family of 7, who before were living in a one room make-shift shack. Seeing the smiles and tears of joy on the family member's faces when we handed over the keys was a truly humbling moment. I couldn't recommend this experience more highly!
